

WeRateDogs Data Insights and Visuals

Introduction :

In this report we will be sharing some insight and provide visual concerned with WeRateDogs tweets in his twitter account (@dog_rates) ,WeRateDogs is a famous twitter account that accept photos of dogs and rate them with a sense of humor, the account rates the dogs with scale of one to ten, or that what is supposed to be the scale , because most of the ratings are above 10, for example this tweet he rated the dog 13 out of ten!. WeRateDogs are also available in other social media platforms like Instagram and Facebook, but other platforms only have the viral dog rates. The account uses "The Dogtionary" to explain the various stages of dogs ,such as doggo, popper , floofer and many more.

Most rated Dog Breads (Most tweeted):

WeRateDogs accepts any dog breads or stages, and then tweet the rate in his account, but which dogs' breads are more rated or tweeted than the others?

We can see from the above chart that the top 3 rated breeds are :

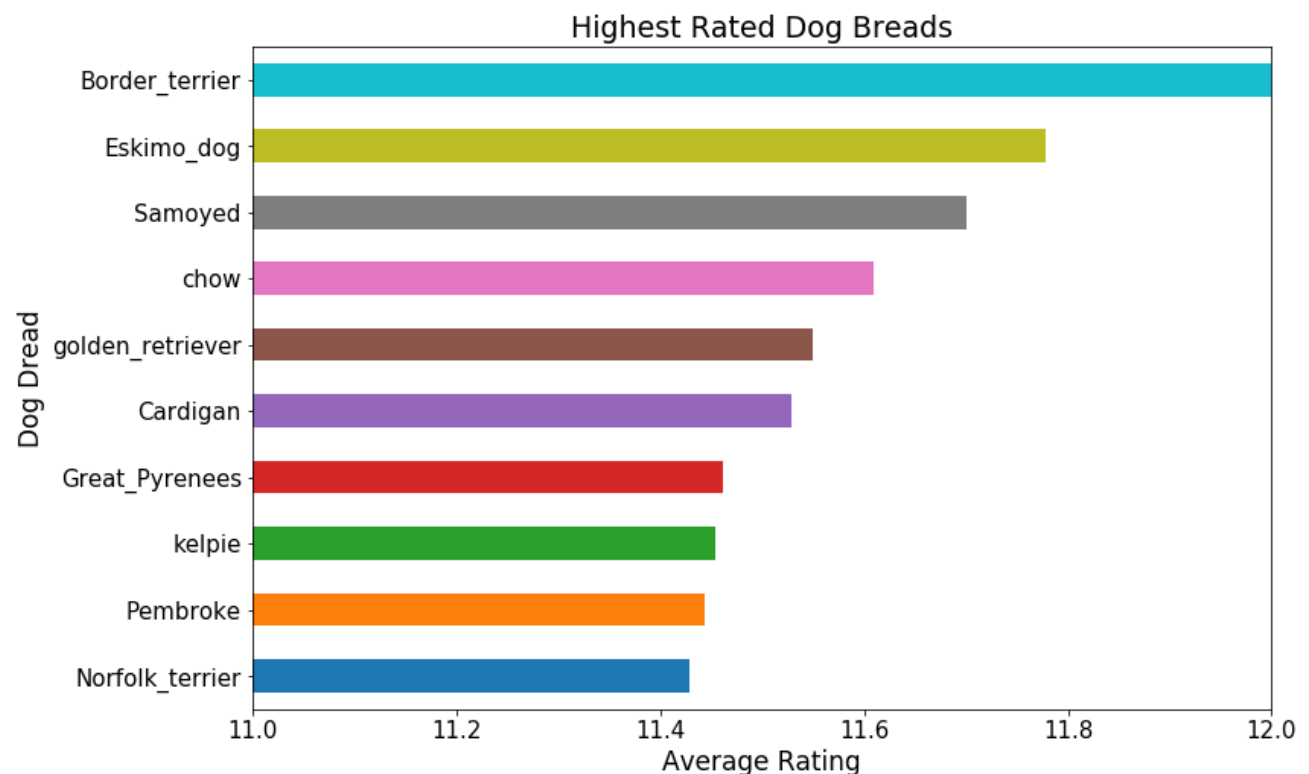

1. Golden Retriever
2. Labrador Retriever
3. Pembroke

It appear that people love retrievers, because they are the first and second most rated breeds.

Highest Rated Dog Breeds:

As we saw above retrievers where most rated but, where they the highest rated dogs?

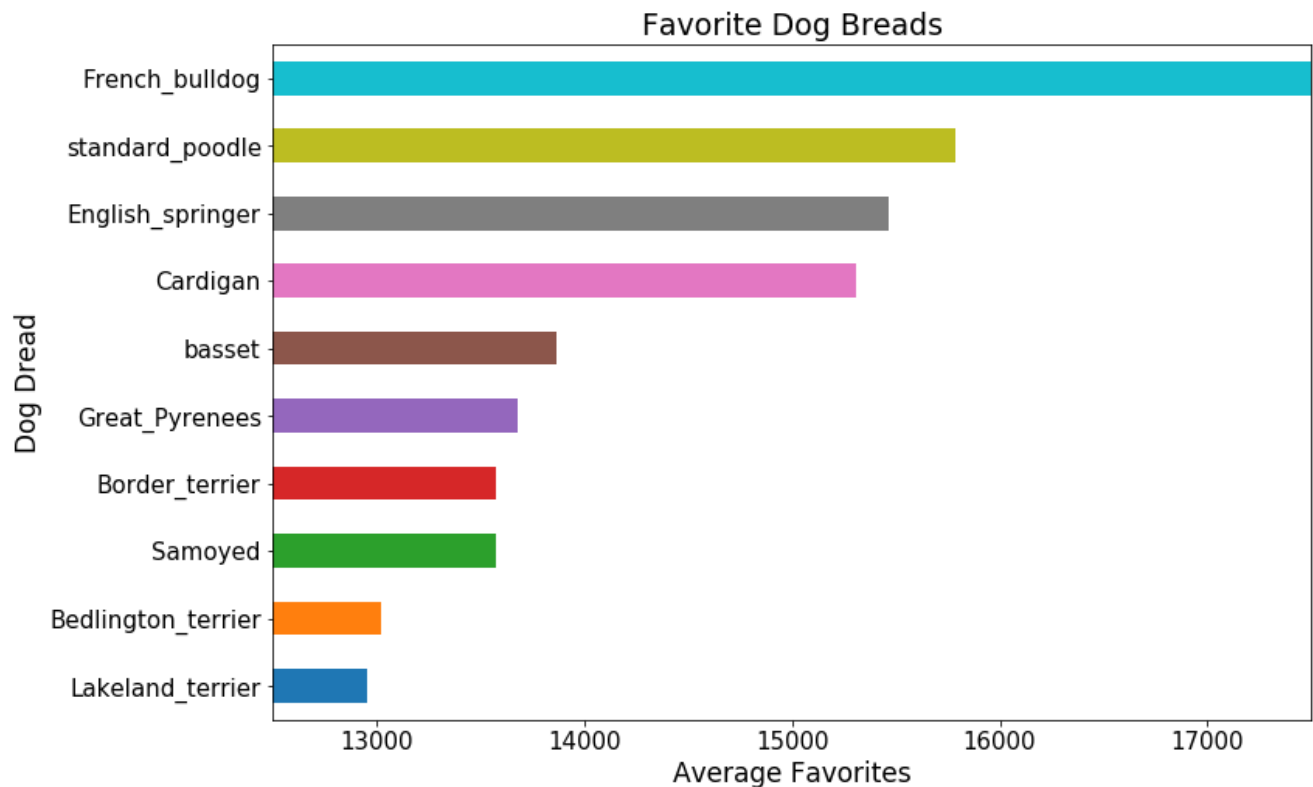

We will calculate the overall mean rating by dividing the sum of the breed ratings with the count, and we will not include any dog breeds with less than 5 rates in the account.

We can see that Border Terrier were the highest rated dog breed on average , while the most rated dog breed The Golden Retriever was the 5th highest rated on average.

Community's Favorite Dog Breeds:

We've seen which breed were the most tweeted about and which has highest ratings, but what about the community, do they agree with WeRateDogs ratings? in the last part we will see which breed has the highest average twitter favorites.

it seems like the community have a different opinion! ,there are neither Golden Retriever nor Border Terrier in top 10 favorites community breeds. All these different opinion ensure that all dog breeds are great.
